WATCH: Amy's Journal #2

Video: There are two images on the screen. One shows Amy sitting on a sofa typing on a laptop. The other image shows what she is typing. We see it appear word by word and hear Amy's voice reading as she types:

AMY (voiceover): It was fun to go to the play and the actor's ASL was so beautiful.

I don't think I will ever be able to sign like that.

I still feel awkward about attending these "Deaf events."

I feel like such a voyeur.

Maybe deaf people don't want hearing people to bother them or intrude on their social times.

When that deaf couple corrected my signs, I was so embarrassed!

Maybe they don't want us messing up their beautiful sign language or even learning sign language at all.
